

FIELDS MURDER TRIAL NEXT WEEK

Trio Charged With Crime Will Be Taken To Hazard First of the Week

The trial of Bradley Smallwood Chester Phelps and Melvin Lawson, charged with the murder of Fred Fields, near Corbin last March, and who have awaiting trial for nearly six months in the Madison county jail, where they were brought from Knox county, has been set for August 18, and the young men will be removed to Hazard within a few days.

The trio, to a man, will enter a plea of not guilty, all asserting they will be able to prove their innocence. Fields was an ex-service man, as are the men charged with his murder. Phelps, who has given a statement to this paper since his incarceration here, is anxious for the trial, as are the other two, since they declare they will be able to prove they were not at or near the scene of the murder when it was committed. Phelps had a caller in the person of an elderly woman Thursday, who has been making regular trips here to see him. She is a motherly woman, and practically raised the unfortunate young veteran.

It develops that on the night of the alleged murder by the trio, Phelps was at the home of a friend and attended church with two young women. He is a member of the Baptist church, it is said, and never allowed anything except the late war to interfere with his regular attendance. This commendable trait, which may be due to the care bestowed upon him by the woman who has kept him since childhood, may figure very conspicuously at the time of the hearing. Phelps was examined and it was learned, according to the aged woman, had never seen the murdered man except to be introduced to him by his two companions in jail. He was turned loose, but subsequently arrested and held for trial. The other two state they will have no difficulty in proving an alibi, which will be the mode of procedure upon the part of them all.

VETERAN WALKS 18 MILES FOR TREATMENT

John Lowry is the name of a young overseas man who lives away back in the hill 18 miles from Newfound, and who is well known in Richmond and Madison county, where he worked for some time previous to the late war, and who was badly wounded, and is just now believed to be recovering from the effects of the injury. It was impossible for Lowry to reside in Richmond, he stated, and it was also necessary to walk the distance from his home, 18 miles, to Newfound, where he was able to take a train for Beattyville, thence to Richmond. He has been receiving treatment from Dr. J. H. Jeffries, acting assistant surgeon of the public health department, and the young man now reports that he makes the overland trip with ease. His wounds, which were of a peculiar nature, having been inflicted by shrapnel, were difficult to heal, but it is now believed a few months more treatment will place him in fairly good physical condition.

FIRST VICTORY MEDAL ARRIVES

Richmond Boy Proud Possessor—Extensive Work At Red Cross

Homer J. Highland, a young Madison county soldier living on Hallie-Irvine street, is the proud possessor of the first Victory medal to reach this city. The medal, which arrived Wednesday, is very attractive, being made of bronze and shows the service emblems, being marked according to the character of service done by Highland.

The work of Stone Norman, at the head of the Home Red-Cross Service, reports there will be many more arriving within a short time, since the petitions are still coming in, and there will be a general distribution soon. At first there was reluctance upon the part of the veterans of the noted war to make application, however, they are now showing a different spirit and many medals will be ordered, since there has been a time extension for the express purpose of admitting of many men who have not yet ordered their medals, to do so through the local Red Cross station.

The ex-service men are also more interested and coming forward in greater numbers for claims of various sorts, more than 200 having been cared for during the past month by Stone Norman. There are many pending, and of all descriptions, being from those petitioning for compensation to those asking for back pay, special allotments, etc. The station is becoming a very busy place and hundreds of young men are being looked after.

It develops there are more ex-service men in need of this and that than suspected, by the manner in which they have held away from asking for aid in any manner the government. This Mr. Norman states, is because of the work now being on the increase. Many Madison county men are being assisted, and there are more coming in, some of them reporting for the first time, although they have been aware for months of the fact that the government stands ready and willing to render aid, if they will but make their wants known. There are many who are now beginning to feel the effects of the strenuous life abroad, some having been wounded and the wounds not healing properly, are in bad condition. This class is especially sought by the government, for they will be assisted upon receipt of their application.

There was an exciting time in Henderson Tuesday afternoon when Ernest Griffin, overseas veteran, was stopped by the police while dragging Gus Acoconmas, a Greek, through the streets, with a revolver pointed at him, as a result of the young soldier's wife having stated she had been insulted during the day by a Greek. Suspecting the man, Griffin was en route to his home to have the man identified when apprehended by the police, who claimed him. Mrs. Griffin is said to have identified the man who would have been attacked again by the irate husband had it not been for the interference of the officers. The Greek was jailed. Griffin said he intended killing the intruder at his home if his wife identified him if the police had not interfered.

These are in turn, turned over to the proper officials and destroyed. It is said the action of the court in deciding to accept all stills and calling it square with the shiners, has proved very successful thus far, and there is hope for a continuance of this gunless variety of fighting.

VOTES OF WOMEN ADD TO PRECINCTS

Important Work In Madison Starts—13 Additional Precincts Are Necessary

The re-precincting of the eight magisterial districts in Madison county, according to the requirements of the new law prohibiting more than 350 votes being cast in each precinct, will be effected within a short time, the preliminary work being started Thursday as a result of the calling together of the commissioners by County Judge Price, who has mapped out a part of the work to be done.

According to the present plan, there will be at least 13 new or additional precincts necessary, considering the possible vote that could be cast, since the admission of women. There will be various changes in several parts of the county and the line of work decided upon according to present plans, will admit of the commissioners getting busy early next month, when it is expected there will be a report of the changes made and the fact advertised.

Judge Price summed up the vote of the last gubernatorial race in the various districts, then multiplied the sum by two, counting a complete vote being a possibility, and allowing for a slight increase, since the vote at the presidential election is expected to be the largest in the history of the county. This will admit, it is believed, of there being no further change being necessitated for some time at least.

According to the result of the figures, admitting of a full vote being cast, there will be precincts in the various districts as follows:

District No. 1—Including Court House and City Hall, 4.

District 2—Comprising Normal and Francis, 4.

District 3—Comprising Chenault, Red House and White Hall, 4.

District 4—Comprising McCrea, College Hill and Kavanaugh, 4.

District 5—Comprising Waco, Brassfield, Bearwallow and Kingston, 5.

District 6—Comprising Blue Lick, Berea, Clay and Duncannon, 7.

District 7—Comprising Burnam, Tevis and Crutcher, 5.

District 8—Comprising Newby, Poosy, Valley View and Biggerstaff, 5.

The district commissioners will be instructed as to what to do and it is the intention to have the work started and completed in as short a time as possible. While it is said by some of those professing to be in a position to know, that there will be a small majority of the women who will take advantage of their first opportunity to vote, however, Judge Price said he was "taking no chances" and would permit room for all, in case "every son's mother" of them should go to the polls.

He told the republicans their party had been split by a quarrel among the leaders, and that the faction represented by Senator Warren G. Harding was the "old guard" which Theodore Roosevelt opposed.

Addressing himself particularly to those who are not democrats, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The day is past when it is either popular or useful to damn everybody and everything connected with the opposition. The republicans, however, show no signs of having taken to heart the drastic lesson taught them at that time."

INDICTED FOR MURDER BROTHER IS EXPIATING

Whitesburg, Ky., Aug. 12.—Charged with the murder of Elijah Sargent, for which his brother recently was sentenced to life imprisonment, Beckham Bates, 18 years old, was indicted here Wednesday. Another brother is awaiting trial as an accessory.

The body of Sargent, aged Indian Creek farmer, was found in a lonely spot in the mountains a week after he disappeared last December. He had been shot.

Uriah Bates, whose desire to marry Sargent's 16 year old daughter was opposed by her father, was convicted a month ago of the murder.

After the trial Beckham Bates enlisted in the army and was sent to Camp Zachary Taylor. On evidence that he disclosed to a friend while intoxicated, before leaving here, that he had fired the shot, he was arrested.

The commonwealth, it is said, in attempting to fasten actual commission of the crime on Beckham Bates, contends that his convicted brother inspired the deed.

Uriah Bates has insisted he is innocent and has appealed. The boys are sons of "Uncle" Bob Bates, a wealthy farmer.

Unofficial but complete returns from 5,507 precincts shortly before midnight, gave Frank B. Willis, of Delaware, a lead of 45,977 votes over Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, for the republican nomination for the United States Senatorship. The vote was:

Willis, 135,398; Brown, 89,412; R. M. Warnamaker, 50,482; Macy Walcutt, 6,237; J. P. Walser, 6,148.

Straggling returns rendered still more uncertain the outcome of the contest between W. A. Julian, of Cincinnati, and Judge O'Neil, of Akron, for the democratic nomination for United States Senator in the Ohio primary. With 406 precincts, to hear from, O'Neil led by 299 votes.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Bride's Apparel

Various criticisms are some times heaped upon the head of the editor, but the most frequent one follows the omission from the wedding account of what the bride wore. There seems to be a mania upon the part of a large portion of the people in knowing how the young lady was dressed. The next demand will be for information as to the color of the lingerie and the texture of the hosiery and then everybody will want to be an editor—that is, every man. Be that as it may, we are right now going to serve notice on prospective brides and would-be prospective brides, want-to-be prospective brides and hope-to-be prospective brides that they must tell the editor what they are going to wear and how they are going to wear it and where they bought it and how much it cost. A questionnaire will be provided for the purpose and if the information is not forthcoming it may be necessary to leave from the paper an account of the wedding because it is hard on the nerves to stand the gaff after wedding accounts published without this information.—Sunner (L.A.) Gazette.

Engagement Announced

Dr. and Mrs. James H. Letcher, of Danville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Kinnard, to Mr. Miller Lee Nichols, of Washington, D. C. The wedding will take place the first of September, and she will be married at her uncle's, Rev. Robert Kinnard, at Ronceverte, W. Va. Moore's PIPELESS

The Furnace for Every Home

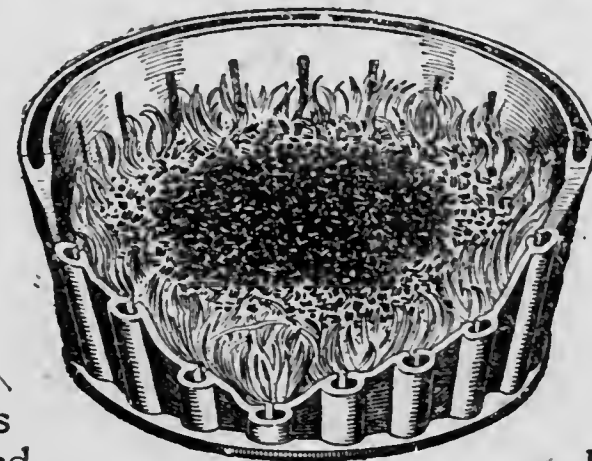

MOORE'S PIPELESS FURNACE will solve your heating problem. Not only will it heat every room in your house—and heat it comfortably—but it will SAVE you at the same time OVER 1/3 of your heating bill. It will give you the simplest and most satisfactory system of heating you could ask for and the most economical as well.

MOORE'S PIPELESS FURNACE is so simple that the whole job of placing one in your home can be done in a day's time. Furthermore, there is no mussing up of your living quarters. Just ONE opening is cut in the floor and this is at once covered by a fine oxidized copper register. After that just tend the fire TWICE A DAY and your home is heated—heated ALL OVER—in the coldest weather.

Is the Furnace for Your Home

MOORE'S Pipeless Furnace possesses every desirable feature—in fact it has many advantages that are EXCLUSIVE. For instance—MOORE'S ANTI-CARBON FIRE-POT (shown at the right) will actually SAVE YOU 38 CENTS ON EVERY DOLLAR'S WORTH OF FUEL YOU BURN. This is because it BURNS all the gas, smoke and soot which in other furnaces and stoves is passed up the chimney and WASTED. It turns waste fuel into heat units; it will burn slack coal just as well as the best grades of lump!

The SELF-CLEANING RADIATOR is another important feature of Moore's Pipeless Furnace. It automatically drops the dust back into the fire-pot so that the heating surfaces are always clean and can therefore deliver all the heat in the fuel. The LARGE MOISTURE PAN, which is located in the most effective place, keeps the indoor atmosphere properly moistened for the requirements of health—a feature that is possible only where a warm air system is used.

There are many other advantages in MOORE'S Pipeless Furnace that we will be glad to explain to you.

Added 50% To Tire Mileage

A Boston tire dealer, for three years, has gathered data on Miller Tires. And he reports as follows:

Users find their tire mileage increased from 50 per cent to 75 per cent.

Blow-outs have been eliminated.

Uniform mileage has been accomplished.

Only six tires in 1,000 come back for adjustment—only five Miller Cords in a year.

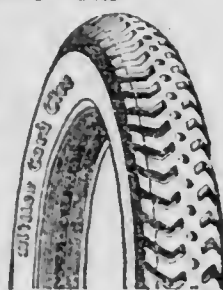

A Louisville dealer compared wear and mileage on 116 styles of tires which he repaired. The constant Miller supremacy has caused him now to handle the Miller Tires only.

THE FARMERS NOW

The approximate amount of labor required to raise some of the more important crops has been determined by the recent farm studies conducted by the office of farm management of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The results show that it requires the work of one man and one horse for a ten-hour day to cut, cure and harvest an acre of hay. Oats, wheat, barley, rye, buckwheat and millet consume more labor; under normal conditions these grains require the labor of a man for two days and for the horse three days.

Noted Evangelist Opens Meeting Sunday

Evangelist J. B. DeGarmo with his singer, Sam N. Elsey, will hold a revival at Calvary Baptist church, on Big Hill avenue, August 15 to 29, inclusive.

Evangelist DeGarmo is reported to be a strong and most successful evangelist. He preaches the old gospel of Jesus Christ with zeal, power and enthusiasm of a “Bible” Sunday and yet with love and tenderness. He sticks close to the “Old Book.”

Singer, Elsey is a song leader and soloist of unusual natural ability. The unusual earnest and sincere spirit in which he sings wings the message of the song to the heart of the hearer. The song service will be a great feature of the meeting.

Dr. DeGarmo has held two meetings in Madison county—one at Valley View and one at Berea.

Superior Qualities Of Peruvian Alfalfa

Peruvian alfalfa has decided advantages over other varieties for those sections of the United States where it will grow, say forage experts of United States Department of Agriculture. This should be taken as applying to the true or hairy Peruvian alfalfa and not to the so-called smooth-leaved Peruvian alfalfa. This latter name the specialists regard as unfortunate, as it leads to confusion in the seed trade and gives unscrupulous dealers an opportunity to make excessive profits on mixed seeds. The “smooth Peruvian” is hardly distinguishable from common alfalfa.

The principal advantages of Peruvian as compared with common alfalfa are its more rapid growth, quick recovery after cutting, and ability to grow in cooler weather, thus furnishing more pasturage during the winter and in late fall and early spring.

The territory in which common alfalfa could be profitably replaced by Peruvian includes a comparatively narrow strip down the Pacific Coast and along the Mexican border and the Gulf, thence up the Atlantic Coast to the vicinity of Charleston, S. C. It can not be grown to advantage where the winter temperature falls below 10 degrees.

This alfalfa was first introduced into this country by the United States Department of Agriculture in 1899. The earliest introductions were not perpetuated, however, and it was not until 1903 that considerable efforts were made to produce a supply of seed. The subject of the Peruvian alfalfa industry is discussed in detail in Department of Agriculture circular 93, just issued.

THE COAL SITUATION MAY BE RELIEVED SOON

That fuel control is in sight again and the school board will continue to hold off for a time is the opinion expressed by some who have been investigating the conditions, one Kentuckian having made a trip to Washington, where he conferred with high officials regarding the relief long looked for. He reports the president will soon authorize a continuance of the fuel administration, whereby conditions will be greatly relieved in this respect.

Postmasters have concluded their meeting at Louisville.

A WONDERFUL HELP

At Two Stages of Life Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Mrs. Fairburn Strong And Well.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the dropsical effect which so often develops at such times. It helped me wonderfully. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years afterwards I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.' I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one."

For forty years this famous root and herb medicine has been pre-eminent successful in controlling the diseases of women. Merit alone could have stood this test of time.

FREAK RAINS BEING REPORTED

There was a deluge Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the western part of the city, which, according to a number of residents, was a "freak," since in the vicinity of North street the rain fell in torrents on the west side, while on the east the ground remained dry. The "streak," as pedestrians called it, could be evaded by merely crossing the street. County Judge W. K. Price and a number of friends were coming to the city from the west. They drove through a blinding rainstorm for a few blocks, receiving soaked clothing, but when North street was reached they found themselves in the open, and yet the rain was falling heavily behind them. A number of citizens watched the freak storm for some time, the immense sweeps of water being plainly while the sun shone bright through the rain in other localities, presenting a most beautiful scene, according to some. This has been the case in many instances recently, the frequent rains said to have been very scattering. A man driving in from the Duncannon district Thursday afternoon stated that on one side of the road the water fell in torrents, while on the other side the thoroughfare was dry.

Gilbert Wilson, ex-service man, of Paint Lick, is said to be preparing for an operation soon which will eliminate a crippled condition as a result of wounds suffered on the battlefields of France.

PREPARE TO CUT RED CLOVER CROP

The second cutting of red clover in Madison county will soon begin, and indications, farmers state, are good for an abundant crop. This was not expected when the first cutting, which was for feed, took place some time ago, but subsequent rains have developed the second crop, which is for seed, to a wonderful extent, and that there will be much of the valuable seed in Richmond within a short time there is no question. Charles Shearer, living west of the city, stated the farmers of his vicinity were preparing to double the acreage for this character of feed another year, some stating they would leave the ground to clover for several years, since it gives the ground a rest and admits of good hay and seed crops being grown; then can be turned back to tobacco an dthe weed can be very successfully grown.

CATERPILLARS NUMEROUS
A plague of caterpillars is reported in various parts of the city, where they are attacking the foliage of the trees in various parts voraciously. They made their appearance, it is said, several weeks ago, in small numbers; now they are coming in "armies," some claim. Some of the trees have been practically stripped of foliage as a result of their visits. There are various reasons given for the invasion, and to save trees and shrubbery various measures are being taken, but it is claimed these are not effective, since there seems to be no stopping their progress.

LAW IS NO JOKE IN MADISON COUNTY

Reports at the attendance meeting at Lexington are to the effect that the new school law is being treated in some localities as a joke, and some of the county school superintendents are said to give it little attention. This is not the case in Madison county, where it is being enforced to the letter, with the result that all schools are overflowing and preparations are being made for more room for the scholars. The laws, as they have been construed here, are believed to have been meant as an earnest movement, and are being enforced accordingly with the result that there is a great increase in the general attendance. There is a fine of not less than $25 for the first violation after fair warning has been given, and another may be punishable by a fine reaching $100, hence the earnestness of the proposition.

The reports came as a surprise to local officers and are determined to follow out the policy of persisting in obedience to the law in every respect. Indications are that the fall and winter months will record the greatest attendance in years in Madison county schools. The parents of those investigated by Truant Officer Paris B. Akin show a willingness to conform to the law in all regards, and a noticeable fact is that at the average school there are many students past the age of 16 years. One teacher in a Madison county school stated recently that one-half the students in her care were "bigger" than she was, but all are interested, it is said, in the question of learning, and unusual progress made last year promises to be repeated this year. The county schools will not be closed until just before Christmas, and indications are there will be rapid strides made in various channels, including the continuance of the improvement of buildings and the increase in attendance.

Closes Up Bank
(By Associated Press)
Boston, Mass., Aug. 11.—Boston Bank Commissioner Allen today took charge of the Hanover Trust Company, where Charles Ponzi, financier, was shown recently to have overdrawn his account. Allen said the bank had been doing business in an unsafe manner and closed its doors.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have no pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer from pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

STILL HAS GRUDGE AGAINST THE ENEMY

Madison County Man Will Not Overlook Being Shot While Down In Battle

There was a battle-scarred ex-serviceman in Richmond Wednesday who enjoyed the visit more than anyone perhaps who has been here for months, since he once had a longing—a very intense longing—to see "old Richmond," so he said to a comrade, whom he accidentally met. This decided longing came to him after he regained consciousness on the battlefield at Chateau Thierry, and he gave up hope of ever seeing Madison county, from where he joined the hordes and went away. He had lain for 28 hours, and to make matters worse, he was "struck when down." The young man, who has been operated upon several times, owing to having been in the path of the enemy's guns for hours at a time and only stopped when a charge of shrapnel struck him in the side, carrying away a number of his ribs and a goodly portion of flesh. He abhors reporters—not reporters, but what they tell the public about him—and makes them wonder what dispositions some men have, especially when they have so gallantly performed the service he has. But he talked to others, apparently in the fullest confidence. But John Bringer, of Wagsville, for that is his name and present home is still sore on the Germans, who had shot away a part of his arm, but this did not stop him. It was after he had been shot in the side and had lain for several hours when the action took a different turn, and the firing of the enemy was low, so low, in fact, that Bringer, who was lying down, because he could not stand up, was shot in the feet several times. He said the ground was swept by the fire of the enemy, and his feet were badly damaged, but he "still held his head" and admits that his greatest fear was being run down by American forces, who, after they started once, came pell-mell, and at that, he added in confidential tones, "they would not be a one of them step on me." The narrator is seeking to gain a new part for his arm, and this will doubtless be provided through an operation to be performed later on, and he wants some ribs and other things which will go far towards making another good man of him, physically for otherwise John Bringer is said to be there all directions of the compass.

THE PRICE OF BACON

A year and a half ago when hogs were bringing 20 cents a pound bacon sold for 55 cents. Today, with hogs at 14 cents, bacon brings 70 cents, says the Fulton Leader, and Tom Underwood adds that it is facts like these that make people so friendly to the packing industry.

Don't streak or ruin your material in a poor dye. Insist on "Diamond Dyes." Easy directions in package.

"CORNS"

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly lift it right off with your fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Quartet Leaves For Harvest Fields In West

Frank VanDeventer, Roy Croxton, Frank Weaver and Fletcher Hanover, who have been busily engaged in local harvest fields for some time, departed for the west Thursday afternoon, going to Topeka, Kansas, where they have accepted positions in harvest fields until the close of the work after which their employers state they will be recommended to others and be allowed to follow the work up into Canada, if they desire, working steadily until the arrival of cold weather. These are but four of a large number to be distributed by Madison county, owing to the recent visit here of a canvasser who sought the service of every available young man who desired to follow up the harvest work and go west as the season advanced.

CRIMINAL CASES BOOKED FOR FRIDAY

County Judge W. K. Price is preparing for the hearing of 15 cases booked for his court on Friday, which have been set for a hearing, and it is expected the entire day will be required, since several of them are said to be such as to require the examining of a large number of witnesses. There was such a deluge of cases booked recently that this special date, Friday, August 13, was chosen (unwittingly) by the court for the hearings. It is expected to be one of the most strenuous days in the history of the criminal division of the court this year. There has been a scarcity of criminal cases in this court, compared to the general number heretofore, but they seemed to come "one right after another," Judge Price said, and he prepared for the disposition of all by setting aside this date for a hearing. Many will bring witnesses from various parts of the county, it is claimed, and the day is expected to be about as busy as the usual Saturday.
